

TPO

about us

TPO is a young Dutch/Danish trio. Reflecting Nordic landscapes and soundscapes, the trio uses space and silence as its main musical tools. Playing improvisations and original songs, TPO creates a crystal-clear sound which is fragile yet grounded at the same time. The result is music with a strong gravitational pull, inviting the listener in from the very first note.

Sander Thijsen - piano

Sander Thijsen (NL, 1991) is a young piano player with a transparent sound and a delicate touch, whose music is characterized by one-pointed focus and sensitivity. He is already performing internationally (the Netherlands, Denmark, Norway, Germany, Italy, Belgium, USA). Venues include the Concertgebouw (Amsterdam) and Carnegie Hall (New York).

Morten Poulsen - drums

Morten Poulsen (DK, 1990) is a drummer whose constant curiosity and playful approach have been breaking boundaries between jazz, rock and avant-garde since early childhood. His passion for improvisation has made him into a highly productive musician, leading to collaborations in his native country as well as internationally. With toys, found objects and drums Morten produces soundscapes inspired by our modern lives.

Jan Ruerd Oosterhaven - electric bass & effects

Jan Ruerd Oosterhaven (NL, 1991) is an exceptional young bass player. Fascinated by sound, Jan Ruerd is always exploring the textures available on his electric bass. Continuing this search, he has also developed into a skilled luthier (builder of string instruments), creating his own brand (Eastbass) and receiving positive reviews in both regional and national magazines.
